Mr. Tilden as a Reformer." Mr. Tilden's record as a reformer just now receiving close attention and ome of the revelations coming to light are highly interesting reading. His late speech on the financial evils under which the country suffers because of Republi can rule, have given zest to inquiries a to several of his financial operations bears pointedly on the question of hard and soft money and at the same time also on the issue of moral reform. hears pointedly on the question of hard and soft money and at the same time also on the issue of moral reform. "We will explain this operation as follows:

Any one who has been up in the Lake Superior country of late years knows what an immense amount of "ore company paper" has been afloat in the mining regions. This paper bore the similitude of money, and greenback money at that. It consisted largely of one, two and five dollar checks on the head offices of the respective ore companies of Lake Superior, and passed current as money. Mr. Tilden is fibe principal owner of the well known "New York" mine, and also a large owner in the "fron Cliff" mine. The former of these mines issued $2,113,666 66 of this money, and the Cliff mine $4,552,094 00 of it, all of which has circulated throughout Lake Superior, and should be currency with the recognized money of the United States, and, contrary to law, has paid no tax. "The whole amount of currency thus issued in Lake Superior by the various companies was over $100,000,000, and it had an exclusive run from 1863 until 1874, when some persons were indicted for counterfeiting it, and the cours discharged the prisoners on the ground that the currency liself was fraudulent and illegal, and it was no crime to counterfeiting it, and the niernal reverme tax, and began to take evidence as to the amount in circulation. The tax was ten per cent; and for twelve years amounted to at least $10,000,000. But by some secret manipulation a bill was smuggled through Congress on the night of March 3d, 1875, re mitting this tax, except for the last year. Here then we see the spostle of hard money talking and writing to the people of the contraction of the contracted in the profession at the circulation that attax as secret manipulation a bill was smuggled through Congress on the night of March 3d, 1875, re mitting this tax, except for the last year. Here then we see the spostle of hard money talking and writing to the people.

Here then we see the apostle of hard money talking and writing to the people paper money, and pointing out the glories of hard money, while for twelve years he was running two mills for the manufact ture of rag money, and palming it off o the miners as better than gold. Un in the paper issued by himself was as good, if not better, than greenbacks. He also had several stores in the neighborhood of his mines, where groceries and dry goods and a variety of other articles were gale and he made his notes legal temler in
